

MILTON ULLADULLA MUSIC proudly presents its 2026 Season Programme

All concerts held at St Martins Anglican Church, corner Princes Highway/Green Street, Ulladulla

Sunday
22 March 2026, 1:30pm
Bach Akademie

Bach Akademie Australia is a dynamic and expert group of internationally recognised instrumentalists and singers which aims to share the inspiration and joyful music of Johann Sebastian Bach. Established by Australian violinist Madeleine Easton, Bach Akademie makes the music story of JS Bach immediate, rich and accessible.

Saturday
20 June 2026, 2:00pm
Andromeda Quartet

The Andromeda Sax Quartet is a rising chamber ensemble composed of four friends, each an advocate for the often obscure world of "classical" saxophone. Formed in 2022 on Gadigal Land, the members of Andromeda met as students at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and formed a quartet to compete as finalists in the conservatorium's Concerto Competition. Since then, they've enjoyed performing together not only across Australia, but the world.

Saturday
22 August 2026, 2:00pm
The Streeton Trio

The Streeton Trio was formed in 2008 in Geneva, Switzerland, named after the Australian Impressionist painter, Sir Arthur Streeton. Now based in Sydney, the Trio brings together three of Australia's most respected chamber musicians. Streeton Trio founder and violinist Emma Jardine, international competition winning cellist, Rachel Siu

Saturday
7 November 2026, 2:00pm
Andrew Rumsey, piano
Myee Clohessy, violin

In a shimmering musical journey underpinned by nostalgia, mystery and the rich tapestry of Australian composition, pianist Andrew Rumsey and violinist Myee Clohessy invite you to step into a world where sound conjures stories. Drawing on works by our finest composers—among them Elena Kats-Chernin, Sally Greenaway, Ken Lampl, Robert Constable, John Ford and others— they weave an evening of evocative colour, unexpected textures and emotive landscapes.